

The Garden Clubs of Warren County present -

FLOWER SHOW EDUCATION NIGHTS

Have you even wondered why certain plants or floral designs receive the best ribbon?
OR wish to learn more about how Horticulture & Design exhibits are judged?

NEW! Botanical Arts Division will be discussed during both events.

Please plan to attend!

DESIGN EDUCATION NIGHT

April 17, 2018 at 7:00 PM

Presenter: MICKIE MARQUIS, an NGC Master Flower Show Judge
Education topics include: Cascade, Construction & Exploration

HORTICULTURE EDUCATION NIGHT

May 15, 2018 at 7 pm.

Presenter: GAIL CHUCK, an NGC Master Flower Show judge and award-winning horticulturist
Education topics include: conditioning plant material for exhibition and discussion of plants native to our area.

Education Nights presented in preparation for the Warren County Fair Flower Show

Springtime in Paris

Judging: July 17, 2018 Entries close July 2, 2018

The Warren County Fair Flower Show is arranged and exhibited under the sponsorship of The Garden Clubs of Warren County. This is an NGC (National Garden Club, Inc) Flower Show, using as its authority, The National Garden Clubs, Inc. Handbook for Flower Shows, latest edition.

The Show will be located in Exhibit Hall A. It will be open to the public except during judging.

Exhibitors of all ages and abilities are encouraged to enter the show.

GENERAL COMMITTEE

Lebanon Garden Club, Chair

Town & Country Garden Club

Waynesville Garden Club

For more information about the Warren County Fair Garden Show, check out <https://www.warrencountyfairohio.org/warren-county-fair/fair-participants/open-class> or contact the Fair Office, 513.932.2636.